

TERMS OF REFERENCE

03 September 2015

Country: South Africa

Duty station: Midrand /South Africa

Description of the assignment: Consultancy – Writing of Background Paper on Chad – Democracy and Political Governance Thematic Area

Period of assignment/services: 26 September 2015 – 20 October 2015

1. BACKGROUND

The APRM is a self-monitoring mechanism to encourage the adoption of policies, standards and practices that lead to political stability, high economic growth, sustainable development and accelerated regional economic integration through the exchange of experiences and reinforcement of best practices including identifying deficiencies and assessing the needs for capacity building of the participating countries. To date thirty-five Member States of the African Union have voluntarily acceded to the APRM.

The APRM proceeds in five phases:

Phase 1 is a preparatory step at both the national and continental level. During this phase, the national Focal Point establishes the National Governance Commission (NGC) and the sensitisation and awareness campaign begins. Once these prerequisites are in place, the country commences the national self-assessment stage. During this stage, the country is also required to develop a Preliminary National Program of Action (NPOA) to address existing capacity constraints. On its part, the continental APR Secretariat compiles basic information on the country called the Background Paper that is used to augment, compare and contrast with the national self-assessment that the country prepares. These three (3) documents namely (i) the self-assessment report on governance, (ii) the preliminary NPOA and (iii) the background paper constitute the basis key issues paper that will be prepared ahead of the country review mission.

The Country Review Mission marks Phase 2 of the process.

Phase 3 is the preparation of the country review report by the review mission that visits the country.

Phase 4 is the submission of the report of the country review mission to the continental APRM Secretariat and the APR Panel for deliberation and recommendations. The Panel submits the country review report and recommendations to the Forum of Heads of State for action. Phase 4 ends with Chairman of the Forum communicating the decisions of Heads of State and Government of the country under peer review.

Phase 5, which is the final stage of the APRM process, involves making public the country review report and actions relating thereto.

The APRM Secretariat therefore seeks assistance in developing the Background Paper on the Republic of Chad for the Democracy and Political Governance thematic area. We expect the selected consultant to identify the main "issues" relevant to the field emerging from the research. Best practices identified in this area should also be highlighted.

2. OBJECTIVES OF THE BACKGROUND PAPER ON DEMOCRACY AND POLITICAL GOVERNANCE

In writing the Background Paper, the Consultant shall follow and be guided by the objectives of the Democracy and Political Governance (DPG) thematic area, and will raise all relevant issues under each of the objectives.

The specific objectives for DPG are:

1. Constitutional Democracy and the Rule of Law
2. The Separation of Powers
3. Prevention and reduction of intra and inter-state conflicts
4. Promotion and protection of civil and political rights.
5. Ensuring accountable, efficient and effective public service delivery at the national and decentralized levels
6. Promotion and protection of the rights of women
7. Promotion and protection of the rights of children and young persons
8. Promotion and protection of the rights of vulnerable groups

3. SCOPE OF WORK, DELIVERABLES AND TIME FRAME

Scope of Work

Under the supervision of the Coordinator for the Chad Review Process at the APR Secretariat, the Consultant will render the following services:

- Develop an outline of the background paper indicating the issues to be covered for the specific objectives in this area one week after the start of the consultancy, and submit this outline to the APRM Secretariat for comment;
- Compile and collect the information necessary to develop the Background Paper for each of the eight specific objectives of DPG;

- For each objective, all the data available and sources used must be specified to allow for an overall perspective and verification of information;
- Data must have proper citations on the source of information and must be of quality, and relevant to the topic in discussion.
- Questions that arise as a result of the research, and require further exploration by members of the review team should be highlighted.
- The paper should be analytical rather than descriptive.
- Tables can be used to highlight areas of good practice and gaps requiring more study by the review mission.
- Tables and figures should be subtitled and sequentially numbered.
- Use the foot of each page for citations and other supplementary information (author, title, date, page numbering) that is tangential to the topic under discussion on the main page.
- Bibliography - provide a complete listing in the Harvard style.
- Provide an executive Summary of 5-10 pages with conclusions on the nature of issues discovered and the status of governance in the country in the thematic field. The Executive Summary should conclude with a bullet point summary of the main strengths and challenges of governance in the thematic area.
- Submit the draft of the Background Paper to the APRM Secretariat on the agreed date.
- If it is necessary, revise and edit the background paper to reflect comments from the APR Panel, Secretariat, and other collaborators.

Deliverables

1. The Background Paper including full disclosure of sources and citations and a full bibliography as mentioned under the scope of work ;
2. An Executive Summary for the background paper
3. A short paper indicating the main areas requiring further exploration by the members of the country review mission.
